Mr. Weisberg:

A purely personal observation.

Nothing would please me more than for you to be correct regarding the Warren Commission, the CIA, the FBI, et al.

While, at this point, I am not convinced that you are correct, I hope you are. And I hope you can prove it to me and the world.

My personal views, however, in no way gainsay or conflict with the official position of the organization I work for; and that is that Clay Shaw is entitled to a fair trial, and anything which tends to deny him that right is deserving of criticism.

Sincerely,

Ole Nelson
